IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 2nd September 1967

SUBJECT.—Grant of advance licences to the Registered Manufacturer-Exporters for import of raw materials for fulfilling specific export orders.

No. 98-ITC(PN)/67.—As a measure of export promotion, it has been decided that requests for grant of advance import licences from Registered Manufacturer-Exporters for import of raw materials etc. to meet specific export orders secured by them from overseas buyers will be considered by the Import Trade Control Authorities on merits of each case. Registered Manufacturer-Exporters who wish to apply for advance licences are advised to contact the concerned Export Promotion Council with whom they are registered for obtaining fuller details in this matter.

[Issued from file No. 1/20/REP/67/EPC.]

SUBJECT.—Import of non-technical journals and magazines falling under S. No. 169-170/IV in the I.T.C. Schedule—April, 1967—March, 1968 period.

No. 99-ITC(PN)/67.—Attention is invited to remark (i) (a) against S. No. 169-170/IV in Part 'C' of Section III of the Import Trade Control Policy (Red Book) for April, 1967—March, 1968, period, in terms of which non-technical journals and magazines can be imported upto 40 per cent. of the face value of quota licences issued to established importers for import of books falling under S. No. 169-170/IV of the I.T.C. Schedule.

2. It has been decided that the established importers desiring to import non-technical journals and magazines against their quota licences under the above-mentioned provision should obtain specific endorsements on their quota licences permitting the import of non-technical journals and magazines to the extent of 40 per cent. of the value of their quota licences. Requests for such endorsement should be made to the licensing authorities concerned, accompanied by five copies of the list of non-technical journals and magazines sought to be imported.

3. Quota licences issued to established importers for the import of books (S. No. 169-170/IV) for the period April, 1967—March, 1968 will not be valid for the import of non-technical journals or magazines unless such licences have been duly endorsed to this effect in terms of this Public Notice.

4. The import policy for Books falling under S. No. 169-170/IV for the period April, 1967—March, 1968 may be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

[Issued from file No. IPC(169-170/IV/67).]

SUBJECT.—Import policy for Synthetic resin finishing agents falling under S. No. 1 (c)(i)/III during April, 1967—March, 1968.

No. 100-ITC(PN)/67.—Attention is invited to the import policy for synthetic resin finishing agents (S. No. 1(c)(i)/III) as given in Part 'A' of Section III to the Import Trade Control Policy (Red Book) for the period April, 1967—March, 1968.

2. The position has been reviewed and it has been decided to substitute the existing A.U. provision against S. No. 1(c)(i)/III in Part 'A' of Section III to the Import Trade Control Policy (Red Book) for April, 1967—March, 1968, by the following:—

"A.U. applications for import of synthetic resin finishing agents used on textiles, other than those mentioned below will be considered by the Joint Chief Controller of Imports and Exports, Bombay in consultation with the Textile Commissioner, Bombay:—

(i) Urea and Melamine Formaldehyde Resin Finishing Agents and their modified forms such as those based on Ethylene Urea, Dihydroxy Ethylene Urea, Propylene Urea and Hexamethoxy Methyl Melamine.

(ii) Polyvinyl acetate emulsions.

(iii) Acrylic and their copolymer emulsions.

(iv) Different resins based binders used for pigment printing on textiles (excluding Imperon P)."

3. The A.U. provision given against S. No. 1(o)(i)/III in Part 'A' of Section III and the entry indicated under column 4 against this S. No. in Section II to the Red Book for April, 1967—March, 1968, may be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

[Issued from file No. IPC(1/III)/67.]

P. D. KASBEKAR,
Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
